

Greenville Police Department

SPECIAL TEAMS & UNITS

The Greenville Police Department has 207 sworn officers throughout our department working in various positions to further our mission to prevent crime, promote safety, and enhance the quality of life of our residents and visitors. All new officers start out working 12-hr shifts on patrol, gaining valuable experience. After 2 years of service, patrol officers are eligible to apply for a position on one of the GPD's special teams and units. Qualifying lateral officers may apply for a specialized position after 1 year of service.
